Philadelphia, Pennsylvania | August 4, 2017 – The Browning Foundation, a charitable organization dedicated to raising money for community entities and providing scholarship opportunities to those in need, will host its first ever formal gala on September 30, 2017 at the DoubleTree hotel located 4509 Island Avenue in Philadelphia from 7-11pm. The event will serve as an official fundraiser while honoring recipients of this year's scholarship program.

Attendees will include some of the most successful tastemakers in the Greater Philadelphia area along with councilmen and women, business owners and church leaders and entertainers. The goal of the gala is to raise awareness and finances to meet the social needs of the community our foundation serves. With a silent auction, comedian and entertainment the nominal fee of $125.00 is well worth the ticket price as it all goes directly to a great cause.
